Mr. James B. Morrison, President
The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company
725 Thirteenth Street, N. W.
Washington 1, D. C.

Dear Mr. Morrison:

Recently the Director of Central Intelligence, the Deputy Director, and their immediate staffs were moved to new offices. It is a pleasure to express our appreciation to you for the manner and efficiency in which your personnel handled the relocation of telephone service necessitated by this move.

This was no ordinary project but rather one of major proportions involving deadlines which required the concentrated efforts of all craftsmen to maintain constant efficient telephone service and to complete the project on time.

Each one of the following Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company personnel is deserving of official commendation for his performance in connection with this assignment:

John T. Kent
Freston B. Longley
S. Marvin Ely
Ralph H. Tibbs
William J. Abner
Brereton G. Hughes
Charles F. Horgan
Edwin M. Warner
John L. Noyes
